Newsletter Q2/2011

VOLUME 2 ISSUE 4

APRIL 2011

Complete Coatings Services are moving and expanding our Business Operation!!

As of from the 7th June, Complete Coatings Services will be conducting its supply of industrial coatings from its new location K6 & K7 Marina Commercial Park, Centre Park Road, Cork.

This location is currently the Jotun Ireland operational and administrative centre for Ireland.

From the 7th June 2011, Jotun Ireland will retain a management office operating independently from the 1st floor of this facility.

The primary purpose of this venture is to expand the existing distribution alliance that currently exists between Complete Coating Services and Jotun Ireland, the intention is to match the high service level of Complete Coating Services, with the well know Jotun Brand and increase its position within the Irish marketplace.

All other leading coating brands that Complete Coating Services offer the market will continue to be offered from this location as normal.

This important expansion of our services will cement Complete Coating Services place as Irelands leading Independent supplier of paint and coating within the Irish Market.
