Paint Dealership Announcement.

Following the recent trend in the paint market, manufacturing companies in order to streamline and maximize their efficiencies on supply and price, have sought paint partners worldwide. Complete Coating Services have been offered and have concluded an agreement with Teknos Paints to be their exclusive paint partner in the Republic of Ireland. It supersedes an existing paint supply agreement that we have had with Teknos up to now of being their sole distributor of their product here in Ireland.

One of the many bonuses of this are that we are now linked into the Teknos European super-structure of partners and suppliers from Russia in the North to Slovenia in the South and from Scotland in the West to China in the East allowing us to link into product development and customer experience in the many various usages that Teknos's paints are used in globally.
